

1085 BARKERS LODGE ROAD, OAKDALE

Quality country homestead with a stunning view - 44.9 acres (Lakesland)

If privacy, sensational views and quality lifestyle are what you are looking for, you will love this amazing property. Perched upon a diverse (approx) 45 acres of blended grazing and timbered land, the superbly constructed double bricked family home boasts four large bedrooms and two bathrooms. Grand living areas with 9ft ceilings, decorative cornices and ornate rose features throughout. The spectacular living room, complete with racked ceiling and cozy fireplace will accommodate the whole family and more. Cedar window frames and doors, high skirting boards and polished floorboards complimented by genuine sand stone blocks in the brick work offer a hardy, yet warm and inviting feel inside and out. A country kitchen with all today's must haves including gas cook top, double oven and dishwasher located in the island bench top. Main bathroom and laundry have received a complete makeover with tasteful tiling used so as not to detract from the charming nature of this home. Under cover entertaining area at the rear of the home is suitable for all occasions and the front veranda is the perfect vantage point with views for miles. Approximately 33x8m of shedding includes lockable workshop and abundance of room for tractors, caravans, motorbikes etc. The acreage would be suitable for horses or other livestock with secure paddocks for grazing. Town water is a huge bonus also. The opportunity to purchase a property of this size just 11mins drive from Picton does not occur every day. To arrange an inspection contact our office today.
