

Lot 1 Lookout Road, PORT ARTHUR

HILL TOP HIDEAWAY

10.5 acres partly cleared but some bush particularly along the creek just above the Port Arthur Historic Site. It enjoys some water glimpses from a potential house site at the south-west corner and grid power is available. A horse was previously kept on the land.

It enjoys a double road frontage and although the address is Lookout Road, access is off Gwen Road along which it has a long frontage.

Selling in order to finalise an estate, this property will appeal to those seeking a bush retreat in a quiet peaceful corner of the Tasman Peninsula just minutes from some iconic tourist destinations including Remarkable Cave, Crescent Beach, Shipstern Bluff and the Historic site.

Those considering investing around $100,000, should call Paul for a plan.
