

12 Salvina Court, WALKERSTON

A Home To Be Proud Of

A great deal of pride has been taken by the owners of this well maintained and beautifully presented airconditioned home. With 4 bedrooms, office, ensuite, 2 living areas, rain water tank and a 9m x 5m x3.8m high clearance shed and located in a quiet leafy court this home will be highly sought after.

Timber decks both front and back will provide a great place to relax or entertain and the kitchen has been designed as the heart of the home with loads of bench space and storage.

The main bathroom has a corner spa bath and shower and there is also separate double basin in the powder room great for the busy families.

The office is also well appointed with plenty of power points, storage draws and benchspace and is easily accessible from the double garage. The lovely deck out the back of the house looks out on to the gazebo with builtin barbeque and this also adds to the ambience and atmosphere that the gorgeous gardens and surrounds create.

The High Clearance shed also has a roller door at the back and the boat, caravan, car or tools will be safe and secure. Located in a lovely area of Walkerston with shops and schools in close proximity this home would suit families of all sizes.
